MONDAY 19 MAY 15:00–17:00
MAPUTO +15

May 2014 marks fifteen years since the international community first gathered in Maputo to begin the historic effort to fulfil the promise made by the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention. What was then, what is now and what comes next?

A SERIES OF 4 EVENTS:

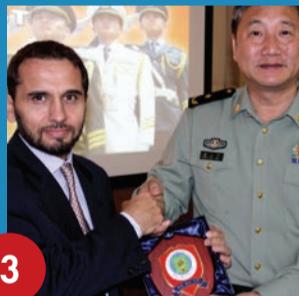

2

TUESDAY 20 MAY 15:00–17:00

BEYOND MAPUTO: THE FUTURE OF COOPERATION AND ASSISTANCE UNDER THE ANTI-PERSONNEL MINE BAN CONVENTION

Fifteen years after Maputo, it is clearer than ever that a spirit of cooperation must prevail to overcome remaining challenges. How can the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention's spirit of cooperation continue to flourish?

3

WEDNESDAY 21 MAY 15:00–17:00
IS THE ANTI-PERSONNEL MINE BAN CONVENTION SUFFICIENTLY UNIVERSALIZED?

In May of 1999 in Maputo, there were but 45 parties to the Anti-Personnel Mine Ban Convention. There are now 161 States that are bound by the Convention. Is it time to now declare that the Convention is sufficiently universalized?

4

THURSDAY 22 MAY 13:00–15:00

BRIDGES BETWEEN WORLDS: THE GENEVA EDITION

In April 2014, Colombia convened Bridges between Worlds, which was a global conference to advance the place of assistance to victims and survivors of mines and other explosive remnants of war in broader contexts. What can be done in Geneva to contribute more concretely to build bridges between worlds?
